Contribution By Greece To UNFICYP Costs

Greece has made a further voluntary contribution of $300,000 to help meet the cost of the UN Force in Cyprus — this time for the three-month period from 26 December 1967 to 26 March 1968.

In a letter sent on 18 March to the UN Secretary-General, the Permanent Representative of Greece to the UN, Mr Dimitri S. Bitsios, points out that the total of Greek contributions to UNFICYP since its inception now amounts to $5,950,000.

Ambassador Bitsios also says that he would like "to express to you once again the sincere appreciation of the Greek Government for the efforts made by UNFICYP to help maintain peace in Cyprus".

CONSISTENT SUPPORT

NORDIC COUNTRIES PLEDGE PEACE - KEEPING ELEMENTS

Norway, Denmark, Finland and Sweden last week informed the UN Secretary-General and the UN Committee on Peace-keeping Operations that they had placed at the disposal of the United Nations national standby forces, especially trained and equipped for peace-keeping operations.

The forces made available by the four Nordic countries total nearly 6,000 men, and are so organised as to be able to operate in close coordination either independently or with elements from other countries.

The Committee on peace-keeping has been asked by the UN General Assembly to make a study of the question of facilities and personnel that UN Member States might provide in accordance with the UN Charter for peace-keeping operations.

UN BLUE FOR GREEN JACKETS

COUNCIL CONDEMNS ISRAEL ACTION AGAINST JORDAN

The UN Security Council voted unanimously on Monday to condemn last Thursday's military action by Israel on the east bank of Jordan as being in flagrant violation of the UN Charter and the Council's cease-fire resolutions.

In its new resolution, the Council deplored "all violent incidents in violation of the cease-fire" and declared that such military reprisals and other grave cease-fire violations "cannot be tolerated".

The Council warned that it would have to consider "further and more effective steps as envisaged in the Charter to ensure against the repetition of such acts".

Another provision of the resolution called on Israel to desist from acts in contravention of the resolution of last June which asked Israel to ensure the safety, welfare and security of the areas where military operations had taken place.

which representatives of all UN Member States were invited.

Annual observance of the day was proclaimed by the UN General Assembly in 1966 to mark "the anniversary of the massacre of peaceful demonstrators in Sharpeville, South Africa, who were protesting against the racist policies of the Government of South Africa" in 1960.

Speaking at last week's gathering, the UN Secretary-General U Thant, said the tragedy of Sharpeville could not be forgotten, and that racial discrimination must be viewed as a world problem to be solved at all costs and peacefully.

OCEAN FLOOR

UN Committee to Study Peaceful Use of Sea Bed

The UN Secretary-General, U Thant, last week opened the first meeting of the Special UN Committee set up to study the peaceful uses of the sea bed and ocean floor.

U Thant urged international cooperation to ensure that the exploration and exploitation of the ocean floor be conducted in accordance with the principles of the UN Charter, in the interest of maintaining international peace and security, and for the benefit of all mankind.

The Committee, set up by a unanimous vote of the UN General Assembly last year, was asked to prepare a study of past and present UN and other international activities relating to the ocean floor and of relevant international agreements.

Bergsmarscher

på SWEDCON

Bergsmarscher har blivit ett populärt nøje på SWEDCON. 1. kompaniet var pionjärer på området, och 2. och 3. kompanierna ville inte vara sämre, så de blev sina egna bergsklättare. 2. komp lade upp en promenad med start i närheten av Ayios Nicolaos och mål vid Olymbos Peak inte långt från Kantara Castle. Allt som allt en liten nått gångväg på en och en halv svensk mil.

Marscherande bjuder på vackra vyer och stärkande luft. Ytterst är det naturligtvis varje mans välbefinnande bergsmarscherna skall befordra. Ett annat ord för välbefinnande är kondition, nog sagt.

I 2. komp:s andra marsch förra onsdagen deltog 18 man, ledda av sergeant Leif Karlsson från Sundbyberg, som på bilden härintill går i täten för gruppen till vänster. Högra ledet har kapten Ulf Jarwall, Kristianstad, som första man, och bakom honom marscherar en av våra civilpolis, kriminalinspektör Lars Gullberg, Stockholm.

Som framgår av bilden gör man det på intet vis lättare för sig genom att lämna stridspackningen hemma. I utrustningen ingår därtill kameror av alla de slag för att naturscenerierna skall kunna förevisas och så småningom förevisas för dem därhemma.

Alla på 2. komp skall före hemresan ha varit uppe i bergen—det är avsikten med marscherandet. Tillfälle ges alltså ännu ett par gånger att falla in i leden som drar upp mot höjderna.

SNART DAGS TÄNKA HÖGER

Svensk FN-bat 39 C må ha vilken fin statistik som helst när det gäller trafiksäkerheten på Cypern, men några vana högerbilister är vi förvisso inte. Det kan heller ingen begära, eftersom vi inte hade många veckor på oss därhemma att hänga med i svängarna efter Dagen H. Så här en månad före rotationen är det alltså dags att vi börjar ställa in oss på vad som väntar oss och förväntas av oss på de fosterländska vägarna.

Vår sista tjänstgöringsmånad på Cypern blir full av högertrafikupplysning. Denna leds av rustmästare Jonas Ericsson, Eskilstuna, som för ändamålet underställs Sektion 3 på zonstaben. Rustmästare Ericsson - polisman i det civila med specialitet att undervisa i skolor - har redan inlett sin turné till de olika kompanierna för att med hjälp av bandspelare och ljudband lära oss högertrafikens regler och finesser.

Bilden härintill är från genomgången på STR-komp. Fr.v. ses Anders Norgren, Köpmanholmen, rustmästare Ericsson, Bo Drackner, Lidköping, Ulf Sehlin, Örnsköldsvik, och Sven Rällskog, Korpiombolo.

Håll till höger - men inte än!

ROTATION OF IRCON UNITS

During the week, the main body of 9th Inf Group departed for home and was replaced by that of 10th Inf Gp.

While regretting the departure of our many friends in the old unit whose co-operation for the weekly production of this page was so essential, we hasten to welcome the new one and take this opportunity to wish its Commanding Officer, Lt Col R. Sullivan, and each and everyone of his officers and men a successful and satisfactory tour of duty.

ROYAL GREEN JACKETS RECEIVE UNFICYP MEDALS

On the same day as the Security Council of the United Nations was meeting in New York and extended the UNFICYP mandate, members of the 1st Battalion, The Royal Green Jackets, received their UNFICYP medals.

These were presented by the Force Commander, Lieutenant General A. E. Martola at a parade held at Polemidia Camp. He was accompanied by Brigadier M. N. Harbottle, OBE, Commander of the British Contingent.

On arrival, General Martola was greeted by Lieutenant General Sir John Mogg, KCB, CBE, DSO, and Lieutenant-Colonel F.E. Kitson, OBE, MC, the Commanding Officer of the 1st Battalion.

General Mogg was visiting the battalion in his capacity as Colonel Commandant of the Royal Green Jackets.

The full band of the battalion was on parade dressed in their impressive dark green dress uniform which includes the shako hat, an attractive feature of British military bands.

The parade of 197 officers and men was commanded by Major E.W. Leask and was formed into two companies under respective commands of Captains Christopher Miers and Nigel Mogg, son of the visiting Colonel Commandant.

After inspecting the parade, the Force Commander presented the UNFICYP medals, and addressed the parade. The parade then marched past, to the Regimental March of The Royal Green Jackets, the salute being taken by General Martola, who was accompanied on the dais by General Mogg.

The Force Commander, Lt Gen A. E. Martola, shakes hands with Cpl Chris Bowley, RAPC, from High Wycombe, Bucks, after presenting him with his UNFICYP Medal. Already having received their medals are Lcpls Sid Fletcher ACC (next to Cpl Bowley) from Southsea, Hants, and Colin Simmonds, REME, from Lyme Regis, Dorset. Next in line for their medals are Lcpls Martin Nash, R Sigs, from Oldham, Lancs, and Martin Shedden, 1 RGJ, from Redcar, Yorks.

On Saturday, a unique fly-past took place over UNFICYP Headquarters to mark the end of the Wessex era and beginning of the Whirlwind era for UNFICYP's Royal Air Force helicopter support.

Led by the Sioux aircraft of UNFICYP Flight, Army Air Corps, followed by the newly-arrived Whirlwinds of 230 Helicopter Squadron, RAF, the departing Wessex machines of 72 Helicopter Squadron, RAF, were in flight for the last time before they finally left UNFICYP and Nicosia for their return on Monday to Odiham, Hants.

The impressive fly-past of nine helicopters, three from each unit, was commanded by Major David Craig, MBE, GM, with the respective commanders, Sqn-Ldr David Todd and Flt Lt Guthrie Young 'in attendance'.

COLONEL OF THE REGIMENT VISITS THE BLACK WATCH

Colonel J.W. Knox, Colonel of the Regiment, The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada, visited his troops last week. At Tjkilos Company he is accompanied by Lieutenant Colonel W.J. Newlands, Commander Kyrenia District and welcomed by Captain I.A. (Ike) Kennedy, Operations Officer.

TAPAHTUMAPAIKKANA KYKKO CAMP

Vinkuvan pinnasta lohkeaa kohta isoja kimpaleita, sillä kers Ervanteen alkoukset ovat vakaat. Kapt Linkola (vas) ja jääk Haapamäki tuskin malttavat odottaa.

Pataljoonan nuotioilta pidettiin maanantaina 18.3, ja missäpä muualla kuin Kykkossa eli suomalaisittain Kikossa. Tunnelma tiivistyi jo heti nuotion sytytysvaiheessa, sytyttäminen tapahtui miltei huomaamatta, kalevalaisten säikeiden siivittämänä, kaikkien muiden valojen ollessa sammutettuna. Tehokas avaus.

Pataljoonan komentaja, eversti Jussi Jyrhämä puhui mainiten mm., että täällä Kyproksella me rauhanturvaajina toimivat saamme paljon kallisarvoisia muistoja kotiin vietäväksi, ja että tämä nuotioilta on varmasti eräs sellainen tapahtuma, joka tulee jäämään läsnäolijoiden mieliin. Komentajan jälkeen tuli mikrofoniin taakse illan sanavalmis kuuluttaja, Aimo Karppanen, joka juonsi iltaa eteenpäin numerosta toiseen. Kikon nuorisoseuran teatteri harjoitteli A. Kiven tunnettua näytelmää "Kihlaus", oli harjoitellut ainakin kuukauden. Nähtiin illan vetonumero, nähtiin salakuljettaja Kalle Koukkaaja ja pari publikaania, kuoro esiintyi. Pataljoonan komentaja yll Jolkosen avustamana jakoi palkinnot urheilussa menestyneille. Ohjelma päättyi sotpast M Toiva-sen pitämään iltahartauteen.

Ilta ei kuitenkaan ollut vielä kokonaan päättynyt. Lähituntumassa oli koko ajan paistettu pientä sikaa, tai suurta porsasta, kummin vain. Myöskahvia ja pullaaToli tarjolla.

Nuotio paloi iloisesti räiskyen, luoden tunnelmalliset kehykset yhteiselle illalle. Pataljoonan nuotioilta oli kokonaisuutena varsin onnistunut.

Myös kauniimman sukupuolen edustajia oli nuotioillassa, ja ihan Suomesta asti. Komentajamme, eversti Jussi Jyrhämä on hyvässä seurassa.

Hyvältä näyttää. Miestä kuin meren mutaa on herkkupalan ympärillä, ja voi noita ilmeitä! Lautaset kädessä ja suu messingillä siinä katsellaan, kun veitsi uppoaa sianlihaan.

UNFICYP'S

GIRLS - FRIDAY

BLUE BERET editors have been approached on a number of occasions by readers enquiring about the faces of the charming feminine voices with whom they talk occasionally over the telephone when contacting the different UNFICYP offices at HQs. Here, on this page, are a few of UNFICYP's Girls-Friday — not all, as some were a bit shy to appear in public print.

Also, the editors felt that for the boys in the outposts who will say that unfortunately they have no cause to call up the "VIP's", a chance to look into the feminine side of UNFICYP might provide a pleasant change in their BERET reading.

HAVE TYPEWRITER, WILL TRAVEL

How does such an international representation of the "Union of Secretaries" come to be in Cyprus? It's primarily a question of wanting to travel.

Sometimes secretaries join the UN in Geneva — or in New York — or in the many offices that the United Nations operates in different parts of the world. When an emergency breaks out and the UN is called on to set up a field mission office, those secretaries who have expressed willingness to serve with one of these missions are called on to provide the life of the secretarial arteries so important in the proper functioning of such an operation.

An example can be found in Miss Barbara Genn (of New Zealand), who first joined the UN Family in Vienna where she worked with the International Atomic Energy Agency; later moved to Geneva and joined there the UN Office in Geneva. More recently, she was at UN Headquarters working in the Office of Public Information until she was assigned late last year to come to UNFICYP, where Barbara is working as secretary to the Force CAO, Mr W.J.K. Duke.

Fay Garcia - U.K.

Miss Sonya Morris (of South Africa) also worked with the UN Office in Geneva (with Barbara) and later at UN Headquarters in New York, and now with UNFICYP where she is secretary to the Force Commander.

For two and a half years, Miss Lisa Chang (who comes from Fiji) worked in New York with the Field Operations Service — the branch of the UN Secretariat dealing with administrative matters of field missions such as UNFICYP. Now, she is happy to be part of one of these "field" assignments where she is kept busy in the Claims Section of UNFICYP, headed by Mr R. Bruce.

in New York until coming to UNFICYP last August, to be secretary to the Secretary-General's Special Representative in Cyprus, Mr B.F. Osorio-Tafall. Miss Anne Roberts (UK) had an assignment in the legendary spring-time haven of Paris — the rest of the year there also proved pretty good! — and is now secretary to Mr. Mok Sen Tan, Chief of UNFICYP's General Services.

BLUE BERET editors hope to convince the other Girls - Friday (and they are charming, too, to say the least) to face the camera to give readers another break from the usual male-operations featured on these pages.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Rugby: HQ UNFICYP 11 points to 3 against the Grifons.

Fencing: Major David Simpson, Force Ordnance Officer, won the Individual Foil of the Services Fencing Championships and was third in the Sabre.

Badminton: Staff Sergeant Don Owen, 8 Field Sqn RE det with 1 RGJ, won the Men's Singles in the Army (Cyprus) Championships. With his partner, Capt F. G. Knight, RCT, they won the Men's Doubles.

Walkabout Competitions: Teams from UNFICYP are competing in this Orienteering competition next Friday and Saturday. The winners are expected to return to Episkopi at 1400 hours on 30th March after walking to Troodos and back.

ROAD SAFETY CORNER

NIGHT DRIVING

Night driving is different. That seems obvious, but many drivers do not understand how different. When darkness falls, they are driving in another world, yet they still use their daytime habits and attitudes. It would be just as sensible to wear summer clothing in winter. Conditions have changed and you need more protection.

What is so dangerous about the early evening hours? Experts say that as daylight fades to twilight and then into darkness, drivers fail to adjust to the changing light conditions. They blunder into a twilight trap in which daylight has faded and artificial light does not do much good.

The ability to drive safely at night depends upon several things but the most important is the driver's own vision. Other factors are illumination, vehicle speed weather.

RULES FOR NIGHT DRIVING

- 1) Know the visibility range of your headlights.
- 2) Drive so that you can always stop within your visibility range.
- 3) Driving at night demands slower speed.
- 4) Reduce speed when facing the glare from approaching headlights and if necessary stop.
- 5) Drive at the reduce speed until your eyes recover from glare.
